

Carla Barreto, an elected local authority member and the Deputy-Mayor of her town, stands poised to become the first female Portuguese Mayor in the UK. With a distinguished career in charity and social enterprise management, she excels in administration, accounting, legal matters, and volunteer coordination. A passionate mentor and advocate for minority groups' civic participation, Carla's dedication to social, multicultural, and legal advocacy is unwavering. Currently completing her lawyer's certification, she remains committed to personal and professional growth. As a member of the Portuguese Consulate Communities Council, Carla now brings her extensive expertise to "The Portuguese Offer, International Trade Exchange" as the CLO and Company Director.
