

Carlos Ribeiro is a seasoned entrepreneur and businessman with a remarkable 25-year track record of success. Highly respected across all the businesses he collaborates with, Carlos has consistently demonstrated his expertise and leadership in the business world.

He is also the co-owner of "As Noticias," the oldest Portuguese newspaper in the United Kingdom, which has been a vital source of news for the Portuguese community across the UK for over 20 years.

Carlos's financial forecasting skills and his personal success make him the ideal Director and CFO for The Portuguese Offer, International Trade Exchange. His strategic vision and extensive experience position him as a key figure in fostering international trade and business development.